VIETNAMESE TEA

DAI LAO VUONG TRA SELECTION

Dai Lao Vuong Tra | Grand Elder Tea King

The Grand Elder Tea King is a collection of rare Vietnamese teas growing high up in the Yen Bai mountains ceaselessly blanketed by clouds and mist. At over 300 years old, the naturally growing ancient tea forests are indigenous to Suoi Giang, Yen Bai. Harvested by hand in the early hours of dawn, the delicate tea buds are tenderly plucked with their unique characteristic flavor intact then carefully roasted by local artisans whose secret inherited techniques span back generations.

We invite you to drink, experience, and immerse yourself in the nature and very soul of Suoi Giang - Yen Bai.

Tay Ho Lotus Tea

165

The lotus, Vietnam's national flower, although plentiful is said to be found in its purest form in Hanoi's Tay Ho West lake. The scent of this particular lotus is unique, subtle, and unforgettable. Tay Ho lotus is blended with Tan Cuong green tea leaves from the Thai Nguyen province to create an unforgettable jade tinted crisp and vanilla hinted infusion. In the 19th century lotus flowers were collected at night, when the nectar was at its fullest and carefully fragile petals were peeled back and filled with green tea. The flower was then delicately closed up and bound while the tea leaves would absorb the delicate floral flavors overnight.
